

Course Description: An examination of the theories, processes, and evaluative methods of group counseling. Group supervision and group participation required. Knowledge of group counseling theories and processes is of critical importance to a professional counselor. Group counseling is utilized in a variety of professional counseling settings such as schools, community counseling centers, and substance abuse counseling. The application of group counseling skills must be driven by a consistent with the own personal theory of counseling. This course allows students the opportunity to further develop their own theory of counseling and to begin to integrate their counseling theory into the processes common to all groups.

Goals of the course: Students will actively participate in an direct experiences in which students participate as group members in a small group activity, approved by the program, for a minimum of 10 clock hours over the course of one academic term 6.h

V. COURSE TOPICS

Learning experiences will provide students opportunities to develop understanding of the group counseling process through an investigation of types of groups, group formation, group dynamics, stages of group development, group leadership characteristics, group counseling theories, group evaluation, and culturally competent leadership methods.

VI. INSTRUCTIONAL METHODS AND ACTIVITIES

Involvement and learning in the course will be facilitated by means of: discussion, lectures, experiential activities, small group experiences, self-directed readings, discussion and reflection posts, and counseling demonstrations. Active class participation is expected and required both online and face-to-face for successful completion of this course. This course involves a high degree of commitment to personal growth and multiple reading assignments.

1. Class and Group Participation (10%)

This class has a synchronous meeting component via Zoom. Class and group participation includes arriving to live classes on time, coming prepared, and maintaining an active participation in discussions and groups.

2. Discussion Prompts (15%)

On asynchronous weeks, there will be 1 discussion prompt posted to Moodle (11 total). The prompt will be visible to students by Monday at 8am CST of each week. Students must make 1 original post AND 2 response posts in order to receive credit for that discussion. Students will have until Friday 11pm CST to post their own original post, and until Sunday at 11209.83 Tm0 G[pos)-6(t)7(s)JTJ

Grading and emailing: Instructor will have assignments graded within 7 days after the due date has passed. Instructor will respond to emails within 48 ULM operating business hours. If 48 hours have passed with no response, respectfully email instructor again.

Late Policy: Papers may be accepted at the discretion of the professor with a penalty of 10% decrease in grade per day. Assignments will not be accepted after one week after the due date. No assignments will be accepted after the last day of class.

Student Services: The University of Louisiana at Monroe strives to serve students with special needs through compliance with Sections 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973 and the Americans with Disabilities Act. These laws mandate that postsecondary institutions provide equal access to programs and services for students with disabilities without creating changes to the essential elements of the curriculum. While students with special needs are expected to meet our institution's academic standards, they are given the opportunity to fulfill learner outcomes in alternative ways. Examples of accommodations may include, but are not limited to, testing accommodations (oral testing, extended time for exams), interpreters, relocation of inaccessible classrooms, permission to audiotape lectures, note-taking assistance, and course substitutions.
