Guest Speaker	Dr. Valerie Fields - VP for Student Affairs
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> x There may be some differences from the Organization Chart in the Handbook for Student Affairs. x Access and Opportunity in people. These are some things that will help as we formulate how Student Affairs will look. As we move forward with planning for the Student Affairs division, we will also have to look at Equality and Inclusiveness for Faculty, Staff, and Students. How students perceive the information we communicate with them. x All of the Student Affairs Directors will received a copy of Leader Shift by John Maxwell before going home for Christmas break. x Facilitating Change –At some point, I would like to s tart a club for students. Talon 's Out Tie Club for men and a Talon's Out Tea Club for women. This will allow them to be prepared to look the part to apply for their job. x Onboarding – what does it look like when a student comes to campus and how we are presenting ourselves to that student's family? x Mentoring to our students. x Guiding students to be successful x Succession planning for us but also what does this look like for a student graduating.
